Stop Human Trafficking: Pathways to Prevention

What Would You Do?

High School Video Contest

About the contest

High school students across the United States are invited to participate in a short video contest responding to the prompt: What Would You Do? to help prevent human trafficking. These videos will highlight potential human trafficking scenarios chosen by the students, and result in raising awareness, educating, and empowering students and others on how to identify and prevent human trafficking. The video can be created by a group, individual or class and must be under 3 minutes in length.
